Library Volunteers Policy

In order to achieve the vision and mission of the Morrill Public Library, we view the active participation of citizens as a valuable resource to the library. Volunteers will be extended the right to be given meaningful assignments, the right to effective supervision, and the right to recognition of good work.

Definition

Morrill Public Library volunteers are defined as persons who volunteer time, energy and talents on behalf of the library and are not paid by Library funds.

Statement of Purpose

The Morrill Public Library shall use the services of volunteers to:

- Supplement the efforts of paid library staff
- Serve as a method for encouraging citizens to become familiar with the Library and the services offered
- Staff or support fundraising activities sponsored by the Board of Trustees or the Friends of the Library

Recognition

At least once a year, the Library will sponsor a volunteer recognition event.
